Kanarese letter No. 406, dated 17th November 1893, from the Muzarayi Superintendent to the Guru of the said Matt, requesting to show cause why the Inam villages forming the Matt's endowments which are now mismanaged should not be taken over under Government management in the interests of the Institution.

My dear Mr Srinivasachary

The Bearer Adi Narayanaiah has come all the way from Madras to see you in connection with the Srirangam suit. There is apparently a very strong feeling against claiming protection from the Court. He has told me that all the debts can be amply personally if you have no objection. This an old one and it behoves [illegible] to arrange [illegible] for its [illegible]-nuance- Name very little more than what Name told you already - & I have no doubt you will do your best to help the Swami in of the present difficulties and place the affairs of the Mint on a satisfactory & enduring basis.

GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

November 16 1895

My dear Mr Srinivasachariar

At the request Mr Adam Narrainjee I had a talk with the Dewan regarding the Sivaganga Mutt affairs, and understood him to be willing to the following arrangements

1. Pay such of the real debts of the Swami as can be settled by the payment of one-half of the amount.
2. It is not necessary to wait for all the creditors to come forward at one and the same time for this settlement

3. If some of them are paid the others are not even if they at present insist upon their full claims being satisfied

4 The payment of them must be distinctly notified to all concerned to be purely an act of grace and concession, and is by no means the recognition of any claim of the rebels of the Swami or the Govt.

5 This settlement must be made as soon as convenient, and a distinct order must be recorded laying down the terms described in 4.

6 that is Swami cannot maintain himself decently out of the allowance of one hundred & now given which some increase must be made with.

7. The Swami to must be held that in consideration of their Swami's acts of Govt he must endeavour to adhere with strict rules and observances of this Ashrama, & take advantage of every opportunity which will be afforded him for improving his knowledge of Vedanta and for pursuing the studies of allied subjects generally, and in short to acquire credit & fill his high position with distinction.

8. If during his stay in Madras he has to incur any small debts for his maintenance this may, after enquiry, be paid.

I need not tell you that Swaminja is an old institution entitled to much respect & consideration & the part, if not creditable to the Swami is not altogether due to himself - The greatest palliation is his youth. But he has had experience, and promises reform and under proper guidance & control may yet become a worthy man - The Govt., in my opinion, are bound to show as much solicitude for his personal welfare as for the maintenance & wellbeing of the

Institution and I doubt not that [illegible] under your wise and sympathetic guidance both will prosper.

Yours very sincerely leaving a balance on hand of Rs 7,724-15-0 which has been deposited in the Government Savings Bank.

3. In May 1894, the creditors of the Priest applied to Government for the adjustment of their claims against him from the Revenues of the Matt estates, but in reply, they were all informed that such Revenue should, under the terms of the grant, be applied solely towards the maintenance of the stipulated Charities, that no portion thereof, could be paid towards the liquidation of the debts contracted by the Priest and that therefore they should only look to the Priest and his personal property for the adjustment of any claims they may have against him.

4. The Priest has since made several representations to Government stating that he is being greatly pressed and harassed by his creditors and praying to be freed from their molestation by an adjustment of his liabilities from the collections of the Matt estate and in his recent petitions No: 1220 dated 4th November 1895 and No: 185 dated 6th January 1896 read above, he further states that he has been compelled to give up his residence at Sivaganga and remain in Madras to avoid the importunities of his creditors some of whom have obtained decrees against him in Civil Courts and that after much difficulty he has succeeded in persuading the marginally* noted 7 creditors to accept 8 annas in the Rupee of the principal amount due to them in full liquidation of their claims, and prays that the Government will be graciously pleased to make such a settlement with all his creditors and thus enable him to return to Sivaganga and and attend personally to the performance of worship and Charities in the Matt. The seven creditors referred to by the Priest have also submitted separate petitions to Government expressing their willingness to forego all interest and accept one half of the principal amount in full satisfaction of their claims in accordance with the wishes of the Priest

5. With reference to the above, the Government observe that no portion of the income from the Matt's estates could legitimately be expended for purposes foreign to the object of their grant. The function of the presiding Priest is simply to carry out such objects to the extent possible within the resources of the Matt. He has no right whatever to contract any debts on the security of the Matts endowments, which by the very nature of their grants are inalienable. The claims of the creditors in the present case are therefore strictly speaking, quite inadmissable. But, however, taking into consideration the personal hardships experienced by the Priest, who quite an inexperienced youth and who has been compelled to abandon his Head Quarters for fear of his creditors, and also taking into consideration the exbremely favorable terms agreed to by the creditors themselves out of regard to the Priest, the Government are inclined to comply with the earnest request of the Priest in the matter of the settlement of his debts.

6. The Government are accordingly pleased to authorize the Musaeum Superintendent to investigate the claims of the several creditors referred to in para 4 above and after ascertaining the exact amount due to each by the careful examination of the documents and accounts that may be produced in support of their claims, adjust the same by payment of half the principal amount exclusive of interest as agreed to by the creditors themselves, the money required for this purpose being met from the savings at the credit of the Matt.

7. The claims of other bonafide creditors (if any) may likewise be enquired into and settled by the Muzrai Superintendent as the Matt's funds become available for the purpose, provided they also signify their consent in writing to accept one half of the principal amount in full satisfaction of their claims.
